

Brothers and sisters,

We have decided to cancel our normal Sunday gathering tomorrow. This difficult decision is the result of much prayer, consideration, conversation and watchfulness. We have kept a close eye on the unfolding events across the world and in our country and while we do not want to give in to unbiblical fear we do want to be biblically prudent (Prov. 27:12) by proceeding in a wise and caring way that proactively protects the most vulnerable among us.

That being said, we urge you to set aside focused time tomorrow to...

-PRAY: pray for the world, pray for our country and pray for our local city officials that they would be given wisdom.

-READ: read the scriptures and find nourishment in God's word. Our memory verse passage would be a great place to start! Romans 8:35-37 (recommended sermon on this text here: <https://www.desiringgod.org/messages/nothing-can-separate-us-from-the-love-of-christ>)

-Our brothers and sister at the Austin Stone have a fantastic resource for parents that you can find here: <https://austinstone.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/03/Kids-Coronavirus.pdf>

-SING: Here are some songs for you soul as you worship with your family or individually
